Dear Helen,

Thank you so much for the photocopies - enclosed is money to pay for them.

Haven't had time to really study what you've sent until after the Holidays. But was very glad to get the actual copies.

Just a short note, but I did want to pay for the photocopying -

Until after the Holidays — Have a Merry Xmas.

Do keep in touch.

Sincerely,
Doris Cambridge

Blood.

This name is very common in this town, and others in its vicinity, and has been so ever since the first settlement. Four of the name are among the original proprietors of Groton, viz., Richard, Robert, James, and Joseph. Richard and Robert are named as petitioners for the plantation, and Richard was one of the first board of selectmen chosen by the inhabitants. He was continued in that office several years, and in 1668 was town clerk.

Of all the original proprietors, Richard Blood was the largest. He owned a sixty acre right. The next highest was a fifty acre right. Either by accident or for some cause now unknown, the lands of the Bloods are not recorded in the Indian Roll or in the book transcribed from it by John Morse, in 1683. They are for the first time described by the proprietors' committee, in 1739, and afterwards recorded. Richard lived at the place called "Nod." He was son of James Blood of Concord, and from him probably descended most of the Bloods in Groton and Pepperell. He died at Groton, 7d. 10 mo., 1683, (not 1692, as stated by Farmer.) A large number of families are recorded. They resided in the north part of the town, and many of them were included in Pepperell and Dunstable, in the divisions of the town.

Dana.

The Rev. Samuel Dana was the settled minister of Groton, from June 3, 1761, to March, 1775. A notice of him is given in the chapter on ministers, &c.

His eldest son, Luther, was an active, enterprising man, engaged in navigation, being master of the vessel in which he sailed. He was father of the distinguished doctor and chemist, Samuel L. Dana, of Lowell.

Story of the Bloods
by Roger D Harris 1960

22 March 1981

Dear Helen,

Had the other Kansas History book, still could not find anything on your David John Hunt - but will always check any books I get for him. Hope these pages help on the Stephen Eggleston and Elizabeth Bennett line - Which line do you think we should accept? You said you could check on the Virkus material, then see what you think - however it doesn't say anymore than these pages do.

Now on this Blood line the only mention I have of James Blood m Ellen Hanson comes from a History Teacher before she retired - states: From "The Story of the Blood" by Roger Deane Harris, pub 1960. (If you can't find this in your book I shall write her and ask more details on this) Here is what she states: "Early writers about the Blood family claimed that James Blood came to America with his four sons, Richard, Robert, John & James Jr. This has since been discovered to be erroneous. The marriage on Feb 7, 1630-31 of James Blood to Ellen Hanson appears on the records of St. Peter's Parish, Nottingham, England." Would you have any way to check on this? If not I shall write Ruth and see what she says. If you could photocopy this Blood material I'd be most grateful & willing to pay costs - as Ruth only wrote this long hand - I also would like photocopies of my Shattuck lines as all I have on them is written in hand also - I like photocopies best - don't you?

Best.

I have photocopies of this material - if you don't have it I'll have it copied for you.

"Americana" (American Historical Magazine) Vol 23. pp 220 221, 222.

"American Ancestry" giving the name + Descent, in the Male line of Americans Whose Ancestors Settled in the U.S. Vol III p 6. (This lists lots of refer. which I have no way of checking out.)

History of Temple, N.H. by Henry A. Blood 1860 pp 203-204-205. 206-207.

Here are some references this Americana Vol 23 p 220 lists that I don't have - maybe there is something for us here -

"Dictionary of English + Welsh Surnames" by Bradeley

"Patronymica Brittanica" by Lower

"Surnames of the United Kingdom" by Hanson.

It seems like it gets so complicated when you really try to prove anything - guess maybe that is why we keep on with genealogy, huh? Guess the only reason I haven't tried harder to prove this material - I've always been working too hard on other lines - Hope we can come up with something!

Doris Cambridge

Need information from this book if you can find it in either one of the libraries you go to—

"Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury, Mass."
by David W. Hoyt 1897.

Title page + pages that start with Richard Bartlett then the pages that list Nathan Bartlett his number is 52 and any pages that list his son John Heard Bartlett.

#

From same book listed above! Some pages on the Chase family - I have pages 92 - + 94 but need the early part if there is any. Page 92 has Aquila Chase who m. Anna Wheeler and on page 94 lists son Daniel who m. Martha Kimball but I don't think it lists all his kids are they on page 95? Need pages his son Isaac is on - he m. Hannah Berry he is listed as number 60 Also need pages that list Isaac's son Henry who m. Abigail Stratton don't know his number - as all of this is the information I need. Without these pages I can't get a library to copy them for me. If you could copy this information will gladly pay for large envelope + all your costs for photocopying.

Thank you!

MRS. GLEN CAMBRIDGE

On this Whitney line do you have any of this material? I sure would like copies of them —

"Families Directly Descended from All the Royal Families in Europe and Mayflower Descendants." by Mrs Elizabeth M. Leach Pitford (East Highgate, Vt. 1932) / and in the April 1933 number of "Americana - Illustrated." It is understood that several societies in which eligibility depends upon descent from ~~a~~ royal or baronial families have long accepted this Whitney line -

This information comes from "The American Genealogist" Vol 10. pp 84 to 88.

There is supposed to be another book "Colonial Families" by New York Historical Society, 1928 pages 168 to 179 - would sure like copies of this too.

I gather all these bits + pieces and then wonder how I am ever going to be able to find the proofs —

Doris.

Anc. & Des. of Jonathan Calkins Wright
1760-1845

The remainder of his service was in the New Hampshire forces. On 9 July 1777 he was in a force of men who marched to join a company of militia, under Capt. Joseph Barrett, which had left Mason, N. H. to reinforce Gen. St. Clair's army at Ticonderoga; but the force was recalled four days later. From 20 July to 28 Sept. 1777 he served in Capt. John Goss' company, Col. Nichols' regiment, Gen. Stark's brigade, sent to reinforce the Northern Continental Army, and fought in the brilliant American victory at Bennington, Vt., 16 Aug. 1777. On 27 June 1779 he enlisted from Col. Moses Nichols' regiment of militia into the Continental Army for 3 years, and on 1 July 1779 joined Capt. Isaac Frye's company, Col. Alexander Scammel's Third New Hampshire Regiment. On 29 July 1779, he received 60 pounds bounty for enlisting for the town of Raby. (New Hampshire Revolutionary War Rolls, vol. 2, pp. 82, 211, 632 and 636; also vol. 3, pp. 18 and 584.)

About 1786 he removed from Raby and next appears in Shelburne, Vt., where he was enrolled in the United States Census of 1790 as head of a family of 2 males over 16 years, 3 males under 16 years and one female. We have found no further trace of his history for nearly 30 years until 2 Oct. 1819 when as a resident of Dearborn, County, Ind., he applied for a pension, stating he was "aged 70 last April" (sic., should be 73); he claimed to have been in the battles of Bunker Hill and Bennington and to have enlisted at Brookline, formerly Raby, N. H., in Capt. Fry's company, Col. Baldwin's later Col. Scammel's regiment. (U. S. Pension Records, Washington, D. C.).

Daniel[5] Shed presumably married and had several children; but no records of his family have been found and no descendants have been located.

The following is coppied from a photostat from Pension Department, National Archives, Washington, D. C.

Be it remembered that on the 9th day of July, 1822 before me John Lindsay Justice of the Peace in the County aforesaid, personally appeared Lucy Shed administratrix of Daniel Shed deceased above named and made oath that she is the lawful wife and administratrix of Daniel Shed late of Dearborn County deceased the person named in the original certificate now in her possession which is herewith transmitted and of which the following is a copy to-wit:
"WAR DEPARTMENT Revolutionary Claim. I certify that, in conformity with the law of the United States, of the 18th March 1818, Daniel Shed late a private on the Pension List, Roll of the Indiana Agency at the rate of 8 dollars per month, to commence on the 2nd day of October 1819, given at the War office of the United States, this 13th day of December 1819, signed C. Vandeventer, Acting Secy of War." That her said husband was entitled to a pension of $8. 00 per month on account of disabilities received or incurred and services rendered during the Revolutionary war that she is perfectly confident he never received any part of his said pension and that he departed this life in the County of Dearborn on the 10th day of April 1820.

Sworn and subscribed to before me a Justice of Peace for Ripley County this 9th day of July 1822.

THOMAS TARBELL 13th town clerk was son of THOMAS and HANNAH LONGLEY TARBELL born 6 July 1667, Groton, Massechusetts. He held office during 1704 and 5. His handwriting is fair but his spelling execrable. He was father of the three children carried captive by the Indians 20 June 1707. He died 24 January 1717.

Sample of THOMAS TARBELL'S spelling:

Grotton, Mar 8 1704 at a legal town meteng the town did yot that thay wull met for the futer to chus town ofesurs the fust tusday of March anuelly.

(Signed) THOMAS TARBELL

RICHARD BLOOD was fifth town clerk, son of JAMES and ELLEN BLOOD of Concord. He held office in 1669. He had sisty acres of land. His wife was ISABEL. Had five children perhaps more. He died 7 December 1683. JAMES BLOOD, his eldest son, was killed by Indians in 1692.

WILLIAM LONGLEY, third town clerk was among the earliest settlers and granted thirty acres. He was the son of RICHARD LONGLEY of Lynn, where the town records sometimes spell the name LANGLEY. He died 29 November 1680 leaving a will dated six days before. He mentions four daughters and two sons.

CAPTAIN JOSEPH MOSS commanded a company in the 7th Continental Regiment in 1776. He was the Captain Joseph Morse who commanded a company of men from Natick, Roxbury, Medway, Sherborne, etc. in Colonel John Paterson's 26th Regiment in 1775. He was probably the Captain Joseph Morse who according to a certificate of Lieut. Colonel Ezra Newhall, served as Captain in Colonel Rufus Putnam's Regiment in 1777, and was Major of Colonel Bradford's 14th Regiment Massachusetts line from November 11, 1778 to December 15, 1779, when he died. His widow was allowed half pay to December 16, 1786.

CAPTAIN JONATHAN NOWELL came from York (now in Maine). He served as Captain in a company from Berwick, York, etc. in Colonel James Scammon's 30th Regiment, A. U. C. in 1775, and held a similar office in Colonel Prescott's 7th Continental in 1776. He was commissioned Brigade Major of York County Militia, June 12, 1778.

CAPTAIN JOHN NUTTING of Pepperell marched, April 19, 1775, in command of a company in Colonel William Prescott's Regiment of Minute-men. He was ordered to be commissioned May 26, his company numbering on that date, 61 men from Pepperell etc. Six members of the company lost their lives at Bunker Hill. He served through the year in Colonel Prescott's 10th Regiment, A. U. C., and in the 7th Continental in 1776. He was engaged July 30, 1778, as a Captain in Colonel William McIntosh's 1st Suffolk County Regiment for the Rhode Island Expedition. He was discharged September 12, 1778. He lived in the northern part of Pepperell and was drowned May 25, 1816.

(Captain Asa Parker's name is given in Colonel Henshaw's Orderly book as commanding a company in this regiment in 1775, and the name also appears in the Historical Register of the Officers of the Continental Army. We are inclined to think however that this is a mistake, as no "Captain Asa Parker" is to be found in the Massachusetts records while the name of Captain Asa "Lawrence" whom we know served through the year in this regiment does not appear in Colonel Henshaw's list.)

CAPTAIN JOSHUA PARKER of Westford, entered the service April 19, 1775, as a Sergeant in Captain Timothy Underwood's Company in Colonel William Prescott's Minute-men's Regiment. He was engaged April 26, as First Lieutenant in Captain Oliver Bates' Company in the same regiment and served 29 days, when he was elected Captain. The company was made up of men from Westford etc. and numbered 61, May 26, 1775. Four of his men were killed and two taken prisoner at Bunker Hill. In 1776 he became a Captain in Colonel Jonathan Reed's 5th Middlesex County Regiment, General Brickett's Brigade. He was tried by court martial at Ticonderoga, November 1776, and acquitted with honor. He was a Captain in Colonel Nathaniel Wade's Regiment (engaged January 1, commissioned March 14, 1778) and served with that regiment in Rhode Island, the enlistment to expire January 1, 1779.

CAPTAIN OLIVER PARKER of Groton was a First Lieutenant in Captain Asa Lawrence's Company of Minute-men which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775. He was ordered commissioned a Captain in Colonel William Prescott's Regiment, May 26, 1775, at which time his company numbered but 26 men. He was dismissed August 2, 1775.

CAPTAIN SAMUEL PATCH of Stow, was ordered commissioned a Captain in Colonel William Prescott's Regiment, May 25, 1775. On the following day he had 26 men in his command, from Stow, Sudbury, Winchendon, etc. Two of the company were killed in the battle of Bunker Hill. In April 1776, he was allowed £3:13:00 for a coat and a "happyfack," lost in the battle. He commanded a company in Colonel Prescott's 7th Continental Regiment in 1776.

CAPTAIN SAMUEL REED of Littleton, commanded a company in Colonel William Prescott's Regiment of Minute-men, which marched on the alarm, April 19, 1775; service ten days.

CAPTAIN SAMUEL STONE of Ashby, marched April 19, 1775 at head of one of the companies in Colonel William Prescott's Regiment of Minute-men. He is probably the same Samuel Stone who was elected 2nd Major of Colonel Jonathan Reed's (6th Middlesex County) Regiment of Massachusetts Militia, in place of Jonathan Minot elected 1st Major, February 15, 1776. In 1780 he was Major in Colonel Cyprian How's (4th Middlesex County) Regiment.

CAPTAIN TIMOTHY UNDERWOOD of Westford was a Captain in Colonel William Prescott's Regiment of Minute-men which marched on April 19, 1775. He was ordered to be commissioned, May 26th. On that date he was the only one credited to his company, although he was reported as recruiting. A list dated May 25, 1775, published 4 Force II p. 824, gives the name of Captain "Timo. Woodward," but it is evidently a mistake, Captain Underwood being intended.

The Revolutionary War records of this office fail to show a claim for pension on file, based upon the service of a John Nutting of Pepperell, Massachusetts. You are furnished herein the record of John Nutting, who enlisted from Groton, Massachusetts, in the War of the Revolution. The data were obtained from pension claim, S. 41926.

The date and place of birth of John Nutting are not shown in the claim, nor are the names of his parents stated.

While a resident of Groton, Massachusetts, John Nutting enlisted sometime in April, 1781, served one year and ten months as private in Captain White's company, Colonel Rufus Putnam's 5th Massachusetts regiment, and served seven months in Captain Ryles' company, Colonel Nicholson's regiment, was discharged in June, 1783.

He was allowed pension on his application executed, June 17, 1818, at which time he was seventy-nine years old, and living in Richford, Franklin County, Vermont.

He referred in 1821 to his wife, Elizabeth, as aged seventy-nine years.

It is not stated that the soldier, John Nutting, and his wife, Elizabeth, had children.

Elijah Nutting was fifty-five years old in 1818 and living in Richford, Vermont; he stated that he had known John Nutting from "my infancy", and that he entered the service at this same time as did John Nutting, both then of Groton, Massachusetts. No relationship shown between John and Elijah Nutting.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, name and address of person paid, and possibly the date of death of the soldier, John Nutting, you should apply to The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, Washington, D.C., and give the following-

RICHARD BLOOD

C1- RICHARD BLOOD In NE by 1642, in Lynn before 1648 and an original proprietor of Groton Mass.
b. abt 1617 (deposed Mch 2, 1660 age about 43)
d. Dec 7, 1683 Groton intestate (deeded his lands to his sons shortly before his death.) Admin of estate granted to widow & 3 sons James, Joseph & Nathaniel Apl 1, 1684. Widow gave bond Jul 8, 1684 with Joseph Parker & Zachariah Ferris as sureties.
m. (prior to Nov 25, 1642 when mentioned in will of Henry Wilkinson of Nottingham England) Isabel ------ As a cousin (prob niece) of Henry Wilkinson her own name may or may not have been Wilkinson. No connection has been found to the widow Isabel Wilkerson of Cambridge as sometimes inferred. The date of her death is not known.

however her son-in-law, Joseph Parker, in 1705 petitioned for permission to sell her lands. In 1706 "In answer to the within petition. Resolved that all the lands which Richard Blood, late of Groton decd died seized of lying in the sd town be given and granted to Joseph Parker, the petitioner... in consideration of the charge that sd Parker has been at in the maintenance of the within mentioned Isabel Blood for fourteen years last past. Provided that the Sd Parker give her also a neet and comfortable maintenance during her natural life and a decent funeral at her decease. Sent up for ConcurranceJuly 12, 1706 In the House of Representatives. Read & Passed."

C2- *Joseph b. Undoubtedly the eldest son. It is noted that 1662-64 lands of James Parker adjoin those of Joseph Blood, 1664 lands of Thomas Tarbell Sr adjoin medow of Joseph Blud, & 1664 the houselot and and another lot of John Page adjoin lands of Joseph Blood so he must have been of age by this time.

C3- *James b.

C4- Sarah b. June 1648 Lynn alive 1711 lived Charlestown, Stratford Ct
m. Nov 17, 1673 Charlestown, Zachariah Ferris

(In Joseph Parker's petition mentioned above he says Richard "left three sons and one daughter whom I married unto." It would seem that Joseph should have known there was another daughter. Ferris lived in Charlestown and moved to Stratford in 1705 and removed from the scene probably made Joseph's purpose less complicated and hence was not mentioned. It will be noticed that in naming their children Zachariah & Sarah after honoring their own names named the third child Richard.)

C5- *Nathaniel b. April 1650 Lynn

C6- Mary b. d. Apl 19, 1662

C7- Hannah b. Mch 1663/4 Gr. alive Apl 19, 1728 (deed)

The constables Bills allowed them to be pd in money are as followeth. Concord Constable-twenty shillings. Grotton Constable - fortytwo shill:

m. Chelmsford Nov 19, 1684 Joseph Parker Jr of Groton (Hannah could not have married 2d Jan 8, 1690/1 Robert Blood as sometimes stated since her husband was alive as late as 1706. It was the widow of Joseph Parker Sr who married Robert Blood #BL.)

An account of Richard's activities may be found on pages 5-8.

C2- JOSEPH BLOOD of Groton
d. prob dead by 1692 when the following names are included in the "Settlement of the Garrison in the West Regiment of Middlesex" Groton Mch 17th 1691/2 "Widdow Blood Junr, Nathaniel Blood, James Blood." This would indicate that there were two widow Bloods living in Groton, the older of course being the widow of Richard living with her son-in-law Joseph Parker. Since James & Nathaniel are obviously alive it must be Joseph's widow.

m. Mercy Butterworth dau Dea John & Sarah of Rehoboth & Swansea. John Butterworth's administration papers names Mercy Blood. Her sister Mary m. Lieut Samuel Thayer who lived in Mendon where Joseph's son Richard Blood later lived. It is my contention that Richard became acquainted with the Butterworth family during his service in King Philip's War and after the war he returned and married their young daughter Mercy. In 1695 Abigail had an illegitimate child and Abigail was joined with her Foster relatives in posting a bond of £50 to secure the town of Andover from cost of maintenance of the child. There is no further record of either and quite likely she remarried. ()

James settled upon a part of the paternal estate. His estate of £148:3:8 was divided in 1694 between his widow, two daughters by his first wife and Jonathan Kemp, uncle and guardian of the three children by his second wife.

C5- NATHANIEL BLOOD of Groton
b. Apl 1650 Lynn was alive on Mch 8, 1719/20 when fined 20/- or two hours in the stocks for not attending public worship, but considering his low condition and charge of family and being "a lame person" it is not more. Perhaps alive in 1723 when son still called Nathaniel Jr. Joseph Parker's petition of 1705 (vide supra) in telling that Richard had left three sons goes on to say "two of which sons dyed and left small children and the other, living being decriped and unable to manage his own affairs...."

2- Concord May 21, 1707, Benjamin Swallow

C19- Sarah b. Apl 17, 1675 prob the Sarah Blood who d. Roxbury July 28, 1690, quite likely a servant to a Roxbury family.
(It has been stated that this Sarah married first John Gilson of Groton and secondly Richard Warner of Groton--that Sarah was Richard's first wife, not second as stated, the two daughters credited to a former wife were in reality Sarah's daughters by John Gilson--This Sarah died in Pepperell Sept 3, 1759 age 85 and would seem to fit and the statement in these books was apparently arrived at in this manner. It is a very logical marriage, but in the controversy relating to the heirs of Capt James Parker in 1729 when the names of all 32 heirs are listed hers is not among them as it should be if she were alive.)

C20- Abigail b. (he bur Pepperell
m. Zachariah Lawrence abt 1707. (/Jan 18, 1754 in 71st year)

C21- Mary b. Apl 17, 1678 d. Dec 2, 1699 Gr. (See Bos. Transcript Apl 17, 1905) m. Zachariah Sawtelle abt 1696 (/1737)

C23- *Joseph b. Feb 3, 1681/2

C24- Ruth b. a live 1721
m. Concord Dec 16, 1708 Isaac Parker s. Isaac & Esther (Fletcher)

Nathaniel apparently did not live very close to the village. On Sept 15, 1673 he petitioned with the proprietors of farms on the Merrimack River. On Sept 26, 1691 while preparing for Indian outbursts against Dunstable and neighborhood Thomas Henchman writes that he had sent Nathaniel Blood and two more men to Groton to strengthen the garrison there. A discussion concerning the names of his children may be found in the Boston Transcript N694 May 27, 1908 & June 8, 1908.

Richard was living in Mendon as early as 1708 (deed) probably in company with his uncle Samuel Thayer, in fact it seems likely that he was brought up by his uncle and aunt. He had moved to Dedham by May 1710 (deed) and remained there until 1720 when he was called of Bellingham. He had the previous year been on the petition for the incorporation of that town dated Nov 17, 1719, but probably did not take up new lands, rather being in the part of Dedham which joined with parts of Mendon & Wrentham to become the new town. He took an active part in civic affairs in Bellingham being a highway surveyor in 1720, '21, Tythingman 1721, Constable 1726 and Assessor 1730. He finally removed to the part of Oxford which became the District of Charlton in 1754 and descendants have remained in Charlton for over two centuries, the last of the name there dying in 1953. I have used Dr Claude W Barlow's "Descendants of Richard Blood of Bellingham & Charlton," Worcester, 1952 for the basis of my work on this line and readers are referred to that excellent work for a more detailed account. Extension of his lines and minor corrections will appear in my typescript manuscript.

NOTE--I should have added under Richard's father Joseph that the claim that Joseph Blood had a daughter Elizabeth who married Dec 1, 1686 Thomas Tarbell is erroneous. It was Elizabeth Woods, rather than Elizabeth Blood. (Mdlsx Court of Sessions Vol 1 p 302: Dec 14, 1714. Petition of Thomas Tarbell of Groton stating that for two years he had supported his father-in-law, Samuel Woods, an aged man in a very helpless condition and asking that the other children help support him.)

C55-probably Sarah b. ca. 1740 d. Shirley abt1800 lived Shirley
m. as 2d wife Amos Holden s. Lieut John & Sarah (Davis)

The tradition is that Amos Holden's wife was a Sarah Blood, the similarity of names in the family indicate this parentage; Caleb Blood #C54 above married a sister of Amos Holden; Moses #C51 above was the only one of the sons living in Shirley, moving there in 1772 living on Longley Road. Amos Holden lived on the east side of Townsend road north of Mulpus Brook, the location indicating the two were close neighbors living within half a mile of each other. I further believe that the "Widow Sarah Blood" whosigned the shaker covenant at Shirley in 1797 and died Apl 13, 1801 to be this same woman for some reason, perhaps in an interpretation of the religion, reverted to her maiden name.

John Blood lived in the part of Groton which became Pepperell. At his decease he left 40 acres in Pepperell where his son David lived, 60 acres where William & Moses lived & 80 acres where Caleb lived.
